The Parish Church of Kilmacolm was erected in 1833 and repaired in 1886. It contains the tomb of the Earls of Glencairn. Their descendant, Mr. R. B. Cunninghame-Graham, author of "Progress," &c., put up a brass tablet to their memory in 1892. The 12th century chancel of the original Parish Church was restored in 1890 to serve as a vestry.
